Extraordinary Precautions Taken for the Protection of the Chief Secretary of Ireland.

He Asserts that the Government's Irish Policy Will Still be Vigorously Carried Out.

Salisbury and the Unemployed Poor---Conference With Sir Chas. Warren---Riots Apprehended.

Lincoln Autumn Meeting.

LONDON, Nov. 4.—At the Lincoln autumn meeting to-day the Lincoln autumn handicap was won by Valentine's three-year-old bay filly St. Helena; W. Stephenson's five-year-old chestnut mare Night Cap was second. Melville's three-year-old bay colt Horton and T. Jenning's three-year-old chestnut filly Valentine ran a dead heat for third place. There were nine starters.

Protecting the Chief Secretary.

The preparations of the police to protect Balfour on his arrival at Birmingham this afternoon were astounding in their completeness and ridiculous in their magnitude. The platforms of railway stations and the approaches thereto were patrolled by a number of detectives heavily armed, and upon alighting from the train the Irish Secretary was met by the chief of the Birmingham police who walked alongside while the detective kept at his elbow on the other. Even the Tories who believe, or pretend to believe, that Balfour is watched by Irish assassins eager to seize the first opportunity presenting itself to kill Balfour, were amazed at the extent of the arrangements of the police to guard against an attack upon a rather effeminate gentleman who is trusted with the work of crushing the spirit and overthrowing the common rights of the Irish people, and amused at the seriousness with which Balfour himself accepted the situation. It has certainly overtopped anything of the kind ever considered necessary to the protection of a government official in Ireland, and came very near to a tacit admission that the course of the Government in applying the coercion act has aroused the indignation of the people of England as well as of Ireland. Balfour's speech to the Midland Conservatives this afternoon was more uncompromising in tone than any of his previous utterances, and in all respects indicative of the firm purpose of the Government to give to the Crimes' act an interpretation that best serves the end of the Tory party. Whatever the attitude of the enemies of the Government may assume, he declared the present policy of the Dublin executive will be followed to the end, and the Government is convinced that it will be able to bring it to a successful issue. His address to-night was mainly a reiteration of this declaration, and an elaborate attempt at justification of the action of the Government in Ireland already taken.

Vigorous Irish Policy to be Pursued.

Balfour, chief secretary for Ireland, addressed a tremendous crowd of conservatives at Birmingham to-night. His speech was mainly a defense of the government's Irish policy and concluded with the declaration that the ministry was resolved to proceed boldly and firmly with the work it had undertaken in Ireland, and equally determined to bring it to a good and satisfactory ending. He intimated that the task would be attended with considerable difficulty, but said that the end in view was entirely possible and the government is perfectly capable of its successful accomplishment. Balfour expressed the hope that at the next session of parliament England and Scotland would receive a fair share of legislation. Still he believed Ireland would be the foremost problem in the mind of everyone taking an interest in the fortunes of the country. The question was not whether Ireland should be governed by an English parliament or a parliament of her own, but whether she should be governed at all in accordance with the principles which had hitherto regulated the action of every civilized state.

Called a Coward.

Capt. Selwyn has instituted legal proceedings against a newspaper which published an article in reference to the Hughes Hallett scandal, calling him a coward for not meeting Col. Hallett in a duel. The affair will now probably be thoroughly investigated.

London's Unemployed Poor.

Lord Salisbury, Henry Matthews, the Home Secretary, and Sir Chas. Warren, chief commissioner of the London police, were in consultation to-day concerning the condition of the unemployed poor. They fear socialist riots on lord mayor's day, November 9th, and are devising means to prevent any disturbance.

French Politics.

Rouvier's victory in the French chamber of deputies on the Rentes Bill is a wholly delusive one, in spite of the apparent strength in his favor. A large number of deputies voted with the government on this occasion, who are on general principles opposed to the ministry, and who allege that they will reverse their seeming approval of the cabinet at the first opportunity. They were obliged, they say, to support the concrete financial measures, but upon abstract questions will be found arrayed against the policy of the government in every case.

Kaiser William Improving.

The emperor of Germany is getting better slowly and may possibly be able to leave his bed in a few days, but nobody believes he will get entirely well.

Spain Joins the Alliance.

Spain has joined the alliance of the Central European powers, Germany, Austria and Italy. This fact is not generally known but it is very significant and may have important results in Mediterranean littoral and on international relations in that region.

Sir Charles Dilke a Home Ruler.

Sir Charles Dilke's friends, now that he has returned to London, are making strenuous efforts to enable him to resume his quondam position in the political world, with the idea of his coming forward at the next general election as a home rule candidate.

Greedy Landlords in London.

The London House Rent League is about to circulate manifestos calling on the working classes to unite in one solid body, and to take immediate and powerful steps to compel rent-grabbing and greedy landlords to reduce rents, and thus relieve the distress which their present rates entail. The manifesto complains that artisans' dwellings, which were to have done so much for the poor, are for the most part conducted on a rackrental policy, with some object of filling the pockets of the philanthropic companies who build them. The result has been, according to the statement of the league, a terrible overcrowding of the dwellings, and consequent immorality, disease, drunkenness and death.

Police Disperse a Crowd.

The police this morning dispersed a meeting of unemployed workmen which had gathered in Trafalgar Square and was listening to an address of a man named Webb. The action of the police was in consequence of the complaints of shopkeepers in the vicinity who had complained that their business was being injured by the gatherings of the unemployed, many of their customers being afraid to visit the shops while the demonstration was being made. Webb was arrested but the mob made no resistance.

Boomed the Paper.

Col. Selwyn's libel suit against Col. Hughes-Hallett is aimed at an obscure journal called the Society Herald, and is a God-send to that paper. Never at any time in a good financial condition, the publication has languished, despite the desperate attempts of the managers to revive it through most questionable methods, and the notoriety into which it is now brought has given it a new lease of life and prospects of a prosperous nature.

Gladstone Treated Unfairly.

Earl Spencer, speaking at Scarborough to-night, said it was extremely unbecoming in Hartington to indulge in insinuations against Gladstone. These insinuations were as unworthy and illogical as they were unfair. Any treatment of Ireland in disregard to her national aspirations he declared had been found to fail.

Comments on Balfour's Speech.

The Daily News, commenting on Balfour's speech, says the absurdity of Balfour in supposing that he can suppress Ireland is equalled only by the absurdity of his attempts to silence the Liberals of Great Britain. If he continues in the present course his ministry will fall amid general laughter and public execration.

Heavy Damages.

Alexander Delmar, an American engineer, to-day recovered through a verdict in the court of Queen's bench, damages in the sum of $25,000 from Robt. Schiellblaum, a London engineer, for libel in having published a letter containing a disparaging statement.

Fighting in South Africa.

A dispatch from Durban says it is reported that a skirmish had taken place at Dinizula between the natives and British troops, in which three of the latter were killed.

He Left $10,000,000.

Russell Sturgis, formerly partner in the Banking House of Baring Bros., is dead. He leaves a fortune of £2,000,000.

Sentenced for Obstructing Police.

DUBLIN, Nov. 4.—Twenty persons, arrested at Bally Kerogne for obstructing the police and bailiffs in the performance of their duty in enforcing evictions were sentenced to prison to-day to terms varying in duration.

Scotland's Jews.

GLASGOW, Nov. 4.—Michael Simon, who was to-day elected a magistrate of this city, is the first Jew ever made a magistrate in Scotland.

French Government Victorious.

PARIS, Nov. 4.—The newspapers of Paris admit that the passage of the rentes conversion bill, by the chamber of deputies, is a victory for the government. They attribute the government's success to the support it received from the Right the majority of whom changed from and voted for the bill.

A Lesson in Loyalty.

Paul De Cassagnac published in his paper a statement in explanation of the Right's action in which he says that the party wished to give the ministry its last lesson in abnegation and loyalty. He says the party will abstain from further disinterestedness.

A Cardinal Dead.

ROME, Nov. 4.—Cardinal Pelligrina, the last member of the Sacred college created by Pius IX., is dead, aged 75.

Emperor William Again Around.

BERLIN, Nov. 4.—Emperor William appeared at the palace windows to-day, and was enthusiastically greeted by the thousands assembled to catch a glimpse of him. The Emperor, who looked very pale, bowed his acknowledgments of the greeting.

THE SPROULE CASE.

A Connecticut Jury Gave Him $1,300 to Defend Himself With, He Handing Over His Stock—A Motion Made to Sell These.

(Special to THE COLONIST.)

NEW HAVEN, Conn., Nov. 4.—A singular and romantic story came out to-day in the course of a legal hearing before Judge Andrews in the superior court. A motion was made to sell certain stocks belonging to the estate of Robert Sproule, late of British Columbia. Sproule was agent for a Connecticut company engaged in working a mine on the other side of the American line. He was charged with murder and the company advanced him $1,800 to defend himself with, and he gave his stock to the company. He was sentenced to be hanged, and after five respites by the Canadian government, the sentence was carried into execution. It is claimed the government hanged the wrong man.

A ROYAL BIGAMIST.

Dr. Andrew J. Grant Identified as the Fenian Leader—Said to Have Been the Son of Victor Emanuel.

BOSTON, Oct. 27.—It is stated that Dr. Andrew Jackson Grant, the bigamist and confidence man, who died in the Cambridge gaol last spring, was in reality Dr. Louis Contri, the Fenian leader, and an illegitimate son of Victor Emmanuel, king of Italy. Evidence regarding the proof of his identity is said to be quite conclusive.

Great Demonstration in Favor of the Condemned Anarchists---Judges Sign the Petition.

A Chicago Bomb-Thrower Confesses on His Deathbed---Arrival of Arctic Whalers.

Heavy Business Failures in the States---Steamer Vernon's Commander a Drunkard.

Demonstration in Favor of Anarchists.

CHICAGO, Nov. 3.—The Amnesty Association received many petitions to-day from various parts of the west praying for a commutation of the sentence passed on the anarchists. The arrangements for carrying the petitions to Governor Oglesby at Springfield have been nearly settled, but the day has not yet been fixed. The delegation will consist of over one hundred persons, representing various trades and industrial societies, and will be headed by Chas. W. Dixon, Senator Burke and Representatives Wright and Roherbach. It has not been definitely settled as yet whether the wives and children of the condemned anarchists shall be taken to the governor. Efforts are being made by the Amnesty association to have a great mass meeting on Saturday in the interests of the condemned men, and it is understood that the police will not object to the meeting if it is conducted on a proper basis. It is stated to-night that August Spies has signed a petition to the governor, asking for a free, full and complete pardon on the ground that he had been illegally and unjustly convicted. The other anarchists, it is understood, will also sign this kind of petition. The fact that they may ask for a full pardon and that the governor may feel compelled to refuse it, leaves the way open for commuting their sentences just as accessible as if the petition were direct to the point. The mammoth petition, for a commutation of the sentence, drawn up by Mr. Saltor of the Ethical society, was signed to-day by Judge Tuley, ex-Judge Henry Booth and a number of prominent persons.

The Drunken Captain.

Edgar A. Hall, brother of the second engineer of the wrecked steamer Vernon, said yesterday that the last time his brother was in Chicago he told him that Capt. Thorpe, the master of the ill-fated vessel, had the delirium tremens while on top of the pilot house. He also says that it ought to have been well known to the officers of the line that Thorpe was a hard drinker, and that he left port while drunk. Axel Stone, the sole survivor, also declares that the captain was drunk most of the time, and adds that while the vessel was coming through the straits the second mate said to the captain, "Sober up, you drunken beast, and take care of this boat and the people." The captain told the mate to go to h—l. The night the steamer was lost Stone says the captain was very drunk. Stone expresses the belief that the vessel would not have been lost if the captain was sober.

The schooner Commodore from Grand Banks reports that on October 29, latitude 43, 25, longitude 60, 10, she passed a fisherman bottom upward, but could not learn the name of the wreck, which was in the track of passing vessels.

New York Trade Review.

NEW YORK, Nov. 4.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of the trade will forthwith show standing collections in many quarters and some failures of unpleasant significance. The prevailing feeling is that the most serious points of danger have been weathered and that trade and industries have been warned in season to check unsafe expansion. The volume of business continues large.

The Labor Party and McGlynn.

The united labor party held the principle mass meeting of the campaign to night at the Cooper union. There was an immense audience, comprising all ranks of society. The Rev. Dr. Karamer presided and spoke. Henry George, Dr. McGlynn, Louis F. Post, and others also spoke. George and McGlynn aroused great enthusiasm by their speeches. The latter caused a sensation by confirming the rumors which had been circulated for a few days past to the effect that the church was about to reconsider its action towards him. He said he felt he had been doing Christian ministration ever since he left the pulpit and he was as much a priest as ever. It was stillhis desire to minister at the holy altars of religion, and he would make no secret of the fact that steps would be taken to repair the outrage that had been committed against him. Certain officials would be called to account for the blunders they had made, and after this election there would be no circulars read from the church altars against the United Labor party. The excitement during McGlynn's speech was intense.

Violent Socialistic Speech.

At a meeting of socialists to-night S. E. Shevitch, editor of the Leader, made a speech in which he said: "On November eleventh the greatest crime and most atrocious murder ever perpetrated is fixed to take place in Chicago, but I tell you if this crime and base murder is committed the end will soon follow. If these heroes are hanged the days of all those concerned in the outrageous murder will be reckoned and the day will not be far off when they will have to answer for the blood they have shed by every spark of life in their worthless bodies. (Loud cheers and cries of "Kill them.") But seven men's lives will not harm our cause. Let them kill seventy thousand, and out of their graves seventy million others will arise. I tell you if these men are hanged next Friday, something thousands of times worse than our late civil war will follow. We will not see it done without acting.

Denies the Report.

Col. R. G. Ingersoll denies the report that he has been retained by the federation of trades, of this city, to go to Springfield, Ill., and plead with Governor Oglesby for clemency for the condemned anarchists.

New York Failure.

Isadore Colnfeld, feather merchant, has made a deed of trust in benefit of his creditors. Colnfeld is ill with mental troubles. Broadstreets reports that Colnfeld's affair is to stand roughly as follows: Assets, $970,000; liabilities, $743,000; surplus $227,000. Colnfeld's trade has been poor, and prices declining. He was the largest feather manufacturer in this country.

Extensive Business Failures.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., November 4.—Hess, Mayer & Co., wholesale dealers in ladies' and mens' furnishing goods, made an assignment. Hente & Wolf, wholesale dealers in hats, also assigned to Hess, Mayer & Co., with liabilities of $450,000, and the debts of Hente & Wolf will reach $100,000; the assets of either firm will not be over one-third of their liabilities. Members of these firms are related by marriage to members of the firm of Lapt, Goldsmith & Co., whiskey brokers, who failed a few weeks ago for $400,000. The firms who went under to-day were heavy indorsers for the whiskey men.

A Bomb Thrower Confesses.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 4.—Thos. Owens, a carpenter, employed at a homestead, who died a day or two ago, confessed before his death that he was a partner of Rudolph Schnaubelt, the man who it is claimed threw the bomb at the Haymarket massacre in Chicago in 1886, and that he himself was the guilty party. The fact did not come out until yesterday, when an inquest was held on the remains of Owens, who died from the effects of an accident received at the steel works. It is stated that he, under pledges of secrecy, confessed to Mullett and Piper, brother members of the Carpenters' Association, that he was an anarchist and an intimate friend of the convicted anarchists. He knew Schnaubelt's determination, and was with him on the night of the Haymarket riot. He said also that it was not Schnaubelt, but himself, who threw the bomb. In the confusion he got to his brother's home, borrowed $37, and left for a country town. Until six weeks ago he tramped. On his person were found letters from his sister advising him to keep away from the socialists, as they had already caused him so much trouble. A letter from his brother cautioned him not to write to him, for fear that his letters would betray him.

Destructive Fire.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., Nov. 4.—Weakly & Warren's furniture building on College street was discovered to be on fire early this morning. The flames communicated with the adjoining buildings until an entire block was one immense sheet of flame. The fire was confined within this space by desperate work of the fire department. The walls of the building adjoining Bank alley fell during the progress of the fire, and a number of people were injured, some probably fatally. Following is a list of the wounded: The 15-year-old son of J. B. Moore will die; Wm. Stewart, Bradford, Nichol. A number of people and several firemen were also more or less injured. Several others are in the debris it is believed. The total loss is about $165,000; insurance, three-fourths.

Anarchists Possibly Commuted.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Nov. 4.—No petition in the due form of the law has yet been presented to the governor in the anarchist case, and will not be for a day or two. Probably a petition will be brought here by Capt. Black, and the case will be then disposed and very likely argued. The governor's mail is increasing rapidly, that of to-day being fully fifty per cent. more than other days. The burden of this increase is matter of advice pro and con to his excellency on these cases. No one here believes that any pardon will be granted or any commutation except possibly in one or two cases. The fact that the prosecuting attorneys at Chicago were intimated some weeks ago that the office would not resist a proposition to commute the sentence of Fielding and of Schwabs gives impression to some that such may be the result.

Robinson's Circus Smashed.

BRAZIL, Ind., Nov. 4.—John Robinson's circus and menagerie is in hard luck. Recovering from its disaster at St. Louis yesterday its consolidated train was again wrecked eight miles east of this place. This morning four coaches left the track and piling up in confusion, the wreck caught fire and was consumed, but the rest of the coaches, including the beasts, were saved. No lives were lost though several were injured. The show was en route to Cincinnatti for winter quarters. The loss sustained by yesterday's accident and today's aggregate $200,000, covered by insurance.

"C" BATTERY ON THE WAY.

They Leave Quebec and Kingston for Victoria Yesterday.

Eighty Single Men Will Arrive First—Fifteen Married Men With Families to Follow—A Misconstrued Telegram.

[From our Own Correspondent.]

OTTAWA, Nov. 4.—The eighty single men of "C" battery left Kingston and Quebec respectively this afternoon en route for Victoria. The Quebec detachment arrived here this afternoon and were inspected by Col. Irwin, Dominion artillery inspector, the stores shipped and the men given a hearty send-off by the spectators. The Kingston men join their comrades at Renfrew. The fifteen married men with families will travel by to-morrow night's train. The second party will number 59. There are twenty children, one over 12 years, twelve between 5 and 12, and six under 5 years of age. The battery was divided in order not to delay the train en route.

The deputy minister of fisheries, speaking in reference to a dispatch from Victoria, that Capt. Warren had been appointed to represent the sealing interest at the fisheries commission, said. "No such appointment has been made by the federal government and we don't know anything about it. The British Columbia government could, if they chose, appoint a person to represent the sealing interests. As far as I know, it is not certain that the question of the Behring Sea seizures will come before the commission at all.

[Capt. Warren has proceeded to Ottawa on behalf of all sealers interested in the seizures, in order that he may be present to answer any enquiries by the government or commission in regard to the same. The government have lately been asking through agents for a variety of information and the sealers came to the conclusion that it would be to their advantage to have some one at Ottawa to represent them—hence Capt. Warren's departure. The meaning of the telegram has been misunderstood.]

THE COLLAPSE OF THE OPPOSITION

The leader of the Opposition is "wounded in the house of his friends" and there are none to staunch the flow of blood and pour the oil of gladness into the wounds. Mr. Beaven's offence lies in his non-success. He has failed to dislodge the government forces and he is henceforth to be hounded as a criminal. The Standard has been just put on his trail and is giving tongue to fitful yelps. In a brief while the Opposition leash will be slipped and the entire pack will be found snapping at his heels. The smash of the Opposition would seem to be complete. The whole concern has gone to the "demnition bowwows" and Mr. Beaven is blamed for the disaster for which he is by no means the most to blame. Mr. Beaven's numerical weakness in the house is not by any means unprecedented. When the late Mr. Smithe led the Opposition he counted only five followers through four weary sessions. But he and his friends never once faltered. There were no traitors then. The press never wavered in its fidelity. No man dreamed of desertion. The fight was long and bitter, but right triumphed over wrong in the end and the Smithe party came into power. The Opposition of the present day must be composed of very cheap material indeed when they desert their leader in the heat of an election contest and by taunt and insult seek to drive him from their midst. What could be more disgraceful than the charge of the Standard that Mr. Beaven would not go to Comox to help Mr. Humphreys because it would cost him five or ten dollars; or the sneaking insinuation, (directed, it is true, at THE COLONIST, but meant for the Opposition leader,) that he was too mean to buy a wig for his bald head; or the gratuitous insult offered yesterday, that he is a Jonah, whom it would be wise to spew out of the party? When Mr. Beaven was in the heyday of his political prosperity and had patronage to bestow, the Standard was his obsequious and devoted slave and bootblack; but now that he has nothing more to give it turns upon and bites him! At any other time, perhaps, these attacks might be limited in their scope and effect. But how can Mr. Humphreys ask the electors of Comox to return him as an Opposition member when the Opposition press announce that the Opposition party have gone to eternal smash, that everything is at sixes and sevens and that the leader has been thrown overboard? In the face of this condition of things, to ask the Comox people to return Mr. Humphreys in preference to a local man would be asking them to commit political suicide. What hope can Mr. Humphreys hold out of his ability to advance the interests of the people at the northern end of the Island when the party he claims to represent have discharged their leader and are quarreling like a mutinous crew amongst themselves? The government are safely seated for the next three years, and Comox will scarcely perpetrate the blunder of returning an Opposition member and a stranger when she has excellent material of her own to select from. The Opposition is dead. Does Comox propose to be merely a political corpse? We think not.

WILL PROBABLY HANG.

There is little prospect of the Anarchists escaping execution. The slender thread upon which their lives hang is the executive clemency and it is quite unlikely this will be exercised in their behalf. The general feeling seems to be that they deserve the fate that awaits them. The principles which they sought to instil were repellent to all lovers of human liberty in its truest and best sense—the crimes of which they have been adjudged guilty were in keeping with those sentiments. Anarchy, ruin and bloodshed must not be allowed to gain a foothold on this continent—they must be wiped out by the strong hand of the law which is mighty enough to grapple with even such villanious foes. Should the Anarchists hang, the lesson taught will deter any others of that foul breed from implanting on this continent doctrines opposed to all that has made it the great country it is. We love liberty and hate anarchy.

A fine assortment of Ulsters, Jerseys, Dolmans, Furs, Plushes, Velvets, &c., is now being opened at Albion House. *

VICTORIA DISTRICT'S EXPERIENCE WITH MR. HUMPHREYS.

TO THE EDITOR:—Will you suffer me to express the hope through your paper that the Comox people will not return Mr. Humphreys—that is, if they expect to prosper?

I have lived in Saanich for hard on to 20 years—before and since confederation. We have sent all sorts and conditions of members to the house and I can safely say that we never sent a member who did as little for us as Mr. Humphreys did. Four of the years that he represented us he was a member of the government and stood in a good position to do lots for his district. Well, did he do it? No; he did nothing—nothing; and what's more, how often did he take the trouble to drive out and see any of us? Scarcely half-a-dozen times. And when any of us went to town and tried to see him about our roads, how often was he seen to slip round corners or dart into stores and get away from being talked to by us "Chawbacons," as he used to call the hard-working farmers of Victoria district. After he was elected and drew his $3,000 a year—he got sorter grand, don't you understand.

Well, when the five years was up we just got rid of Mr. Humphreys. It didn't matter to us whether he was a cabinet minister or not. All we saw was the member who'd promised everything and hadn't done anything for us. So we just went for that Heathen Chinee; you bet, and don't you forget it (I don't think he ever will), and no district since then will have him. He gets beaten every time.

I hear he's now running for Comox. Don't he hope he'll get in? No doubt. But I don't. It will be a blue day for Comox if they should send him down. The Victoria district people found it was no use putting any faith in those palavering fellows from Victoria so since we got rid of Tom we always send farmers to represent us. So now we get on splendidly and our roads are well looked after.

Hoping you will let this testimony from a farmer go in, I am,

A SAANICH ELECTOR.

THE COMOX ELECTION---OPINION OF AN ELECTOR.

TO THE EDITOR:—I am remaining a few days at Victoria and happened to read your paper at the hotel this morning. I agree with every word you say about the Comox election. There is no manner of use in our electing a man like Mr. Humphreys to represent us. We want a local man. What does Mr. H. know about farming or land culture? Can he tell you the difference betwixt a plough and a harrow, a rake or a hoe? I'll wager not. He is a great talker. But we don't want talkers—we want workers. I've had to work and work hard all the days of my life. How hard and where has Mr. Humphreys worked? What has he done to merit our support? And then, as you put it to us, what's the use of our trying to get this government out now. They're in for three years sure and the opposition is bust all to bits. And if we send a man in to kick against the government for no other reason than that they are a government, why it goes without talking to say that there won't be as much done for the district as if we sent a government man or an independent. I don't like this government policy overmuch, but I ain't going to bite my nose off because I ain't proud of my face. Not much!

Give us a local man as against a stranger, any day, say I. A COMOX FARMER.

THE ADDRESS TO MR. MUIR.

TO THE EDITOR:—I would be the last to restrict the liberty of action of the members of the teaching staff; nor was my first letter to you open to that construction, although a writer in your evening contemporary affects to so regard it. I look on the teachers as higher and nobler than mere machines to move and think at the bidding of trustee boards. I regard them as intelligent reasoning beings. It is because I entertain these sentiments that I have expressed surprise that so many of the staff have attached their names to a paper every line of which is an implied censure on the trustee board and their action in forcing Mr. Muir to resign the principalship of the High school. The signers, having their wits about them, must have known what they were doing when they attached their names. They have not even the wretched excuse ("I didn't know it was loaded,") of the miserable youth who pulled a gun at his sister and blew her head from her shoulders.

I say, Mr. Muir was first guilty of insubordination, and that when forced to tender his resignation he added to the offence by attaching to the blackboard rude and uncomplimentary extracts from a public newspaper, supplementing these with a letter from the secretary of the board requesting him to remove the extracts.

In his letter to you Mr. Muir pleads guilty—confesses that he did these contemptuous and contemptible things and yet strikes the attitude of a martyr and seems to expect the people to sympathize with him in the loss of his situation. I am not surprised to hear this. Mr Muir was finally tumbled into the square by the long suffering trustees and the doors doubly padlocked upon him; but I am surprised and mortified to think that after his condemnation by the board he was thought worthy of a complimentary address and testimonial from the teaching staff. Having lost his situation for contumacy to the board, his late colleagues virtually wish him more power to his elbow! What is this action by the teachers but rank rebellion against the authority of the trustees? It is not then the trustees who wish to stifle a spirit of independence in the teachers. It is the teachers who are trying to ride roughshod over the trustees by condemning their successful efforts to discipline a contumacious employe.

I feel sure that every disinterested person who read their address and the correspondence that preceded the presentation, will agree with me when I remark that Mr. Muir was most justly condemned and that the teachers in endorsing his acts, have been guilty of a gross act of insubordination which the trustees cannot suffer to pass in silence. PARENTAL.

EVERYBODY TO BLAME.

TO THE EDITOR:—A couple of words in the last sentence of my letter have been mistaken, viz: "Thou" is made to read "there" and "blown" is made to read "sown." The cry raised at the time of the rupture was, Down with George Columbia, tyranny, ritualism and mimic Roman-Catholicism! Now, in 1886, it is changed to Hail Columbia! by some of the same party. A LOOKER ON.

Give Them a Chance!

That is to say, your lungs. Also all your breathing machinery. Very wonderful machinery it is. Not only the larger air-passages, but the thousands of little tubes and cavities leading from them.

When these are clogged and choked with matter which ought not to be there, your lungs cannot half do their work. And what they do, they cannot do well.

Call it cold, cough, croup, pneumonia, catarrh, consumption or any of the family of throat and nose and head and lung obstructions, all are bad. All ought to be got rid of. There is just one sure way to get rid of them. That is to take Boschee's German Syrup, which any druggist will sell you at 75 cents a bottle. Even if everything else has failed you, you may depend on this for certain.

THE CAROLINES.

Particulars of the Slaughter of Spaniards by the Natives.

From the different account published in the Manila papers we gather the following particulars: In the beginning of July last alarming news reached the Spanish town of the evil intentions of the natives of the island to attack the young colony. The Governor, Senor Posadillo, dispatched a small force of twenty men under an ensign with an interpreter to meet the insurgents. On the meeting of the two forces, a most sanguinary combat ensued, in which all but one wounded soldier, who escaped to tell the horrible tale, perished before the enemy, who considerably outnumbered the small party and were armed with modern rifles.

The commander of the pontoon Maria de Moltna, who had observed the sanguinary struggle from his ship, asked permission from Governor Posadillo to open fire at the enemy with the two guns he had on board the pontoon, but the Governor, being assured by the interpreter that there were many of the natives who are faithful to Spain, refused to allow this violence to be used, thinking he could easily quell the disturbance. On learning, however, of the design of the natives, and of what had occurred, and having but a limited force at his disposal, he sent the women, priests and the treasure on board the Pontoon for safety, and prepared to make a bold defense if the insurgents should come.

On the following day the natives attacked the town, and after several hours of heavy firing, the natives proposed to the forces to surrender, which proposal they refused with an offended dignity, and the battle was resumed with renewed energy. After a while the Governor began to perceive that all his efforts were unavailing before such a large number of enemies, and he and his party beat a retreat toward the Pontoon, defending themselves all the way as best they could. The commander of the Pontoon, perceiving the critical position of the handful of braves who inch by inch were ceding the ground, dispatched the boats together with fifteen men, ashore to receive them. Very few of the Governor's party however, could reach the praya, most of them being killed on the way.

Governor Posodillo himself, who received no less than four bullet wounds, was killed when the water reached his waist, having in hand his rifle, with which he dispatched seven of the insurgents. The way to the Pontoon was also cut by numerous armed boats, and so the greater part of the Spanish colony perished in this unfortunate affair. Those in the pontoon defended themselves as well as they could until the arrival of the San Quentin, which, after providing the Pontoon with stores, taking on board the ladies, the wounded and some prisoners, left for Yap on the 7th inst., from whence she left for Manila on the 13th. There were left in command of the Pontoon the officer second in command of the San Quentin, with one ship ensign, several sailors and thirty Europeans. Of the two prisoners who came on board the transport, one was a Portuguese subject, a native of Cape de Verde island, who, it is alleged, was directing the attempt together with some of the Regalos of the neighboring islands. The Portuguese subject is now a prisoner in the Manila Jail. The number of people slaughtered on the part of the Spaniards was variously estimated at between fifty and sixty.

Various men-of-war, it is said, received orders to be dispatched with troops to the scene of the disturbance.

NEW ZEALAND.

The Ministry Defeated—New Gold Fields.

The polling for the new Parliament took place on September 26th, and the result was that the Ministry were defeated, this defeat being emphasized by the rejection of the Premier, Sir Robert Stout, at Dunedin East, and the Minister of Justice, Mr. Tole, at Newton, one of the Auckland suburban electorates. The Ministry was fought and beaten on the simple ground that it acted injuriously to the country, by refusing to retrench in the public expenditure, by striving to increase taxation, by juggling with the finance, by unsettling men's minds by efforts at "land nationalization," and other "fads" which are not yet within the sphere of practical politics.

Sir Robert then forwarded to the Governor the resignation of his Ministry. No new Ministry has been formed, but it is thought that Sir F. Whitaker may be induced to accept the position of Attorney-General and perhaps become Premier.

An extensive find of gold is reported at Te Arona. Hundred of unemployed men are flocking to the gold fields and there is promise that the suffering at Kimberley will be repeated.

CROWDING SALISBURY.

Now that Crispi has made a positive declaration that Italy has joined the Austro-German alliance as a proof of interest in the maintenance of peace and the balance of power, the pressure on Salisbury to take a similar st p grows stronger. Practically a new alliance will have for its principal objects the maintenance of peace next year. It is really an anti war-in-the-spring combination.

OF AND FOR WOMEN.

A pretty woman is like a mustard plaster. She absorbs all a man's attention.

Trim fingers would be more conspicuous if some of the trimmings were discarded.

A Vermont woman has paid $50,000 for a husband. This is extravagant. She could have paid a girl to light the fire for less than that.

Japanese ladies of the upper class expose only half an arm. A display of the entire arm would necessitate the application of a snickersee.

It is now shamelessly rumored that the fashionable sunburn about which the girls pride themselves so much is applied with a brush out of an eight-ounce bottle.

Princes Clementine, mother of Prince Ferdinand of Bulgaria, is offering prayers at Lourdes and several Austrian shrines on behalf of her son.

A Bar Harbor girl, who was told by an old boatman to be sure and have her boat well-trimmed, went to work and sewed two silk flounces around the gunwale.

Texas Siftings: Why don't some of you young folks get married? We could write up the affair in fine style, and then we could tell you how we enjoyed the nice piece of cake you sent us.

Among the crowds going to Kingston, Ont. lately, to attend the circus were four couples who entered a Methodist parsonage and got married. Two of the brides had no idea of the wedding until they reached the city.

A Boston woman wants to found a colony on an island in the Pacific Ocean composed only of women. She has had two applications already. They are from two widows who have passed the age of seventy and gives up all hopes.

ENGLISHMEN EAT HORSE FLESH.

Mr. Earnest Baggallay, sitting yesterday afternoon at West Ham Police Court, gave his decision in the case of Horn, the chief sanitary inspector of West Ham, against Barber, wherein the point was raised whether a person holding a knacker's license and slaughtering houses, the flesh of which was used for human food, should not also hold a slaughter-house license. Mr. Baggallay, in giving his decision, first dealt with a case which had twice been adjourned, in which it was stated that the defendant had on his premises a cow and a bull dressed for human food, and in that case he decided that it was not proved that the animals were killed on the premises, and he dismissed the summons, with costs. On the other case his Worship said that after hearing all the evidence he found it proved that during April and May horses were constantly slaughtered on the defendant's premises. In some cases the horse flesh was boiled down and sold as cats' meat, but in most cases, and particularly on April the 20th, the carcasses of the horses so killed were dressed and sold to butchers and sausage-makers in different parts of London for human food. —London Daily Telegraph.

SCRATCHED 28 YEARS

A Scaly, Itching, Skin Disease with Endless Suffering Cured by Cuticura Remedies.

If I had known of the CUTICURA REMEDIES twenty-eight years ago it would have saved me $200.00 (two hundred dollars) and an immense amount of suffering. My disease (Psoriasis) commenced on my head in a spot not larger than a cent. It spread rapidly all over my body and got under my nails. The scales would drop off of me all the time, and my suffering was endless, and without relief. One thousand dollars would not tempt me to have this disease over again. I am a poor man, but feel rich to be relieved of what some of the doctors said was leprosy, some ring-worm, psoriasis, etc. I took .... and .... Sarsaparillas over one year and a half, but no cure. I went to two or three doctors and no cure. I cannot praise the CUTICURA REMEDIES too much. They have made my skin as clear and free from scales as a baby's All I used of them was three boxes of CUTICURA and three bottles of CUTICURA RESOLVENT, and two cakes of CUTICURA SOAP. If you had been here and said you would have cured me for $200.00 you would have had the money. I looked like the picture in your book of Psoriasis (picture number two, "How to Cure Skin Diseases"), but now I am as clear as any person ever was. Through force of habit I rub my hands over my arms and legs to scratch once in a while, but to no purpose. I am all well. I scratched twenty-eight years, and it got to be a kind of second nature to me. I thank you a thousand times. Anything more that you want to know write me, or anyone who reads this may write to me and I will answer it.

The Medical Council.

The medical council concluded their business at New Westminster on Wednesday, when the following gentlemen were permitted to practice in British Columbia, viz., Drs. Bodington, Fagan and Samson. The Registrar of the Council has been instructed to take proceedings against all those who are practicing contrary to the Provincial Act.

The Weather.

Yesterday's weather was not pleasant, but it was quite fine compared with that recorded in a letter just received from Calgary. It states that 20° below zero has been recorded there, the Bow river being frozen over. Skating has begun at Winnipeg, and snow is flying in the east. We do have a wet, gloomy day occasionally, but then the bright, sunny ones more than overbalance them. We cannot expect perfection.

Large Freight List.

The steamer Yosemite arrived at the outer wharf at 5:30 last evening with a large local, and five carloads of through freight. At the outer wharf 84 cattle for L. Goodacre and 63 head for Van Volkenburgh Bros. were landed. Four thousand three hundred cases of salmon were aboard from the following canneries: Ewen & Co., 2,000; B. A. P. Co., 1,300; Phœnix, 1,000. The lot will be transferred to the iron bark Clairmont to-day.

A Convert.

It would be very interesting to know what has occasioned the Times' change of base as to the China steamers not calling here. So complete a one has perhaps never been witnessed in Victoria. We are glad to welcome the new convert to our ranks. There is always hope for pardon even at the eleventh hour. It is well known, too, that new converts always overflow with enthusiasm both in their words and acts. Our contemporary has started out well—let not his zeal cool.

A Little Romance.

Says the Port Townsend correspondent of the Seattle P.-I.: A nice little romance has just come to light in this city that might, should the proper inventive mind get hold of it, be made an interesting story. James Baker, of Victoria, came to this city yesterday, with a blushing little widow, and in a few hours they were made man and wife. Further inquiry revealed the fact that he bride was the grooms' sister-in-law; or in other words the bride was Bakers brothers' wife, who is now deceased. The laws of the Provinces are very strict against such alliances, and the couple came to Uncle Sam's domain, that they might embark on the sea of matrimony.

An Untrue Statement.

The Columbian, with its Vancouver spectacles on, has a reference to the China steamers calling here which is the veriest gush. Our contemporary always poses as a modern saint, but he is instead a most untruthful writer. For instance in the article referred to he says that the assistant postmaster at Victoria "went on board and insisted that all the mails must go to Victoria postoffice for distribution. Capt. Webber would not consent, and the assistant postmaster was obliged to return empty handed." The statement that Mr. Cairns, the deputy postmaster, went on board and insisted that the mails should be landed is without the slightest foundation in fact. In his zeal for the "booming city" the Columbian man oversteps the line which divides truth from falsehood.

The B. C. Museum

The contributions to the museum at James Bay have been so numerous of late that the worthy curator has hardly any place left in which to move around; in fact, if he was to extend his arms he would assuredly do damage. The collection is daily becoming more interesting, and is worthy of a more spacious exhibition hall, but this defect will likely be remedied when the new law courts are ready for occupation and the old one is vacated. At present the wonderful variety of birds, animals and fishes are placed very closely together, so that their numbers are hardly appreciated, but nevertheless the museum is well worthy of a visit, and a good idea can be formed of the infinite character of the flying, walking, crawling, and swimming life which is to be met with in the woods and waters of the province. Mr. Fannin's ability as a taxidermist is admirably demonstrated by the very natural appearance of the collection.

Medical Lecture.

Another medical lecture was given at the High School this afternoon by Dr. Milne. The subject was "Anatomy," and the lecture was illustrated by means of the manikin as also by the bones of the human skeleton. The lecturer classified the different kinds of bones and showed the objects intended by nature for the purposes of locomotion, &c., &c. He dwelt particularly on the various kinds, of bones of the head and spinal column, referring to their construction as intended for the protection of the nervous system. He then enumerated the various classifications of joints and their construction and the objects for which they were intended. Dr. Milne showed several skulls illustrative of different formations of the head. Amongst them was one supposed to be that of an aborigines which showed very peculiar formation in the shape which was different to that intended by nature, as it is the custom amongst the Indians to compress and flatten the skulls of infants. Next Friday the lecture will be on Hygiene.

Ship Duchess of Argyle Abandoned.

Captain Christensen, who towed the Argyleshire out yesterday afternoon, left her off at midnight. He spoke the bark Farris Thompson, bound for Departure Bay, and the captain reported that a ship was ashore close to Port San Juan, near Vancouver Island. The tug Pilot lay over till morning on account of the dense fog. Port San Juan harbor was entered at 9 a. m. A boat was sent ashore to get particulars, and it was ascertained that the captain and crew of the Duchess of Argyle had left at daybreak in three boats for Neah Bay. Captain Christensen went close to the ship and saw her lying on the beach apparently full of water, her stern up on the rocks, and her bows down level with the water, heading westward. All her sails were loose. The Indians informed Captain Christensen that there were one white man and two Indians left in charge of the ship, but the captain did not see anyone on board. He saw three canoes, loaded with what is probably some of the cargo from the ship, paddling into the harbor. Nothing certain could be ascertained as regards the damage done to the vessel.

Welcome to "C" Battery.

"C" Battery having started last evening for the coast the arrangements for according them a welcome should at once be perfected. The idea is a good one, and will be an evidence to the men of the pleasure it gives Victorians to have them located here.

Has a Level Head.

Admiral Heneage, the new commander of the Pacific squadron, said at Montreal that he intends to cruise in the Behring's Sea and supervise the situation there. He believes the sealers seizures will be considered by a commission and declares if he had been there he would have resisted by force any attempt at seizure.

Interior Gold Strikes.

T. M. Hamilton, of Bridge Creek, who arrived in Westminster on Wednesday, told a Columbian reporter that the gold strike on Cayoosh Creek, in Lillooet district, was undoubtedly one of great richness. Mr. Thaddeus Harper has sent in to the Horsefly about 80,000 pounds of machinery during the past summer.

A Valuable Paper.

The WEEKLY COLONIST, issued yesterday morning, contains a great deal of matter interesting to all readers, and is the best medium possible to send to absent friends. The number contains complete accounts of Government House ball, and the citizens' ball to the fleet, as well as the general local and telegraphic news of the day. Single copies ten cents.

It Won't Work.

A most unusual circumstance, that of a steamboat captain being off on a holiday, is now occurring. Captain White's handsome face is no longer seen at the wheel of the Princess Louise, he having left for Seattle by the Premier yesterday on a few days holiday. Who knows but that when he returns he may bring back one of Seattle's fair daughters with him. In the meantime the Princess Louise is under the charge of Capt. Irving, the well known and popular manager of the line.

The above is from the Vancouver News-Advertiser. We opine that Mrs. White will have something to say not exactly favorable to this little arrangement. She accompanied her husband.

St. Andrew's and Caledonian Society.

At the annual meeting of this society held last evening the following were appointed office bearers for the ensuing year: President, A. J. Smith; first vice-president, John Grant; second vice-president, J. J. Geddes; treasurer, D. McKay; secretary, D. R. Munro; assistant secretary, David Boyd; physician, Dr. Renwick; trustees, Messrs. Russell, R. P. Rithet, A. Allan, John Robertson, W. A. Robertson, John Boyd and A. Murray; wardens, Thomas Gowrie and T. Innes; bard, James Deans; piper, David Kennedy; auditors, J. H. Lawson and W. H. Mason.

A special record of Capt. Irving's, (the outgoing president), services was spread on the minutes, and St. Andrew's day was selected for the annual dinner.

Generous Donations.

Madam De la Mothe has most generously handed over $50 to Mr. A. A. Green as a donation to the Protestant Orphan's Home. This is understood to be part of the proceeds of the recent concert given by her. As it was not announced to be in support of so deserving a charity the gift is all the more magnanimous. It was a thoughtful, kindly act, worthy of the "sweet singer" now in our midst.

Mr. A. J. Langley has also placed to the credit of the same institution the sum of $78.75, the net proceeds of the recent magic lantern exhibition given by him at The Victoria.

The Sisters of St. Ann tender their grateful thanks to Madam De la Mothe for her handsome donation of $50 towards the support of their Orphanage. Would that all artistes who visit Victoria showed the same noble spirit of charity!

The Kootenay Indians.

It is stated by a gentleman well acquainted with Kootenay matters that Isidore is bent upon creating trouble, if he can possibly do it, and to this end has interested in his cause the Stoneys and Blackfeet on the eastern slope of the Rockies, and the Flatheads and some American Indians. He says that, though Isidore has but one hundred men, he could raise about 500 fighting men from other tribes, and with this number he could commit fearful outrages. The depredations of the Indians south of the boundary, as stated in our telegrams yesterday, would seem to verify the opinion expressed above, that the Kootenay Indians are very restive and are eager for an outbreak. It is hoped, however, that the presence of the mounted police will still keep them from becoming hostile until the present ill-feeling has subsided.

The Orangemen's Ball

Given by the Order of Loyal Orangemen, came off last night at Oliver's Hall. The hall was packed, there being fully two hundred feet on the dancing floor when the music began. The ball opened with a waltz quadrille in which no less than six sets took part. Pleasure was plainly depicted on the faces of both ladies and gentlemen and the members of the dance committee had their work cut out in introducing strangers to one another. The refreshments were of a most substantial nature and full justice was done them by the epicures of the crowd. After giving a good account of the refreshments the gay worshippers of Terpsichore again went to the shrine and dancing was continued very late into the morning. Mr. Stuart fulfilled his arduous but agreeable duties with the modesty but fidelity of a true Scotchman.

Bishop-Johnstone.

Mr. George Bishop, head carpenter for the C.P.N. Co., was last evening united in marriage to Miss Ellen Johnstone, late of Crossgate Hall, Edinburgh, the young lady having arrived on Wednesday evening from that point. The ceremony was celebrated at the future home of the contracting parties, by the Rev. Donald Fraser, in the presence of a number of friends. Late in the evening the Queen City band put in an appearance and serenaded the newly married couple. They were invited within and a most enjoyable time was had. A collation was served in keeping with the hospitable nature which characterizes the popular groom. The groom has long been a prominent member of the St. Andrew's and Caledonian society and of the I.O.O.F., and his many friends wish Mr. and Mrs. Bishop every prosperity in their wedded life. They were the recipients of a large number of presents, evidencing the high esteem in which they are held.

Cedar Hill Social.

The social at Cedar Hill last evening was a great social and financial success, the attendance being estimated at 150. The programme was as follows:

Part I.—"The Torpedo and the Whale," opening chorus; reading by the Ven. Archdeacon Scriven; song, "When the Heart is Young," Miss Farrington; recitation, Mr. Pollock; duet, "Harvest Home," Misses King; song, Rev. Mr. Bolton; piano solo, Miss Christie; acting proverb, "'Tis an ill wind that blows nobody good," by Misses Tolmie and King and Messrs. A. H. and C. King and J. W. and S. F. Tolmie.

Here an intermission for refreshments was had.

Part II.—Plantation song, by the amateurs; duet, "What are the Wild Waves Saying," Misses King and Farringtonl reading, Mr. Landels; duet, "Beautifu; Angels," Misses J, Laing and M. White; recitation, Mr. Kerr; piano solo, Miss Christie; Phan-tom, a charade, by Misses Williams and E. Tolmie and Messrs. A. H. and C. King and S. Tolmie; "Will ye no Come Back Again," by the amateurs;" "God Save the Queen."

The gem of the evening is said to have been Miss Farrington's "Home, Sweet Home."

No more delightful evening was ever spent by the good people of Cedar Hill.

Westminster Freight Returns.

The freight returns for the week ending Oct. 31st show an increase of 679,000 pounds over the previous week, while the charge on the same are almost $5,000 more. Amount of freight forwarded, 773,950 pounds; charges on same, $4,662.74. Amount of freight received, 937,610 pounds; charges on same, $6,797.11. Total number of pounds handled during the week, 1,711,560 pounds; charges on same, $11,459.85. Receipts from sale of tickets, $739.20. It will be noticed that the ticket sales are largely in advance of any previous week, which speaks well for the amount of passenger traffic that is being drawn to this city.—Columbian.

Alberni Produce.

By the steamer Maude, which arrived on Thursday from Alberni, Mr. H. Saunders received a number of samples from the farm of G. D. Clark, Alberni. A dozen "early rose" potatoes weighed from 1½ pounds to 4 pounds in weight, and on being cut were found to be solid throughout. The carrots were of a large size and excellent flavor. The squash were of a peculiar shape and very bright in color. An early Belgian cabbage table turnip weighed thirty pounds. It was grown from seed received by a priest from Belgium in a letter. The samples may be seen at Henry Saunders' store, Johnson street, and are the best evidence of the amazing fertility of the soil in the Alberni settlement.

Securing a Witness.

Of a lawyer and a speculator from San Francisco, who visited London some years ago to place some bogus mines upon the market, Mr. Bancroft, the Pacific coast historian, in a late volume, tells the following interesting story:

The two adventurers got into a quarrel and went to law. A broker well knowing both persons happened to be in London at the time, and to him the lawyer applied for testimony upon the character of his opponent.

"You know this man?" queried the lawyer of the broker, referring to the speculator.

"Yes."

"You have known him long and intimately?"

"Yes. Have had business transactions with him, and know of his business transactions with others, and of his general character."

"Yes."

"Now Mr. Broker, could you not testify for me in court that you would not believe him under oath?"

"Oh yes," replied the broker, "I could easily do that."

"All right," responded the lawyer in a tone of great satisfaction, "I will send a cab for you at eleven o'clock to-morrow. Good day and many thanks."

"But stop a minute!" cried the broker somewhat embarrassed; "once in court and on the stand it is difficult to say what questions may arise. Now suppose he should ask me to testify the same of you. I should have to do it! I should have to do it!"

PERSONAL.

J. C. and Master Prevost, and S. Tingley arrived from the interior last night.

Judge Blanchard and Capt. Barkley, R.N., were passengers by the Louise last night.

Mrs. Langtry's husband has been appointed to a position in the English lifeboat service.

Jack McKeown, the champion wrestler, came down from Vancouver last night and is a guest at the Brunswick.

G. Leiser, of Lenz & Leiser, who has been spending several weeks in Europe, arrived at New York the other day, and will return to Victoria some time next week.

Edward Sentell and family, of Loch Lomond, will leave by to-night's train to settle in Vancouver, B.C., where three of Mr. Sentell's sons have already established homes.—St. John, N.B., Sun.

Rev. W. L. Monck, of Antigonish, N. S., registered at the Royal hotel, St. John, N. B., and was soon helplessly drunk in the bar. Being refused liquor he visited various saloons and was arrested.

Capt. Frank White, captain of the Princess Louise, was relieved at Vancouver on Tuesday morning by Commodore Irving who is now running the Louise between this city and Vancouver. Capt. White, accompanied by his wife and daughter, proceeded to the Sound on the Premier, for the purpose of enjoying a long deferred and well earned holiday.

Mr. Connolly, of Larkin, Connolly & Co., contractors for the Esquimalt graving dock, left for Quebec this morning. This gentleman has been the one member of the firm who remained almost constantly at the work since the beginning, and has consequently became better acquainted with our citizens than Capt. Larkin or Mr. N. Connolly, though they, too, have many warm friends here. He leaves our fair city with regret, having since his residence here become very much attached to the place. However, he trusts that in the near future the firm may secure other large works which may bring him again to the Pacific coast. During the progress of the work Mr. Connolly was brought in frequent contact with our business men, he arranging for all purchases. His fairness in dealing and never varying geniality of disposition has placed him in a high place in their estimation and they one and all will regret his departure. Socially Mr. Connolly and his family formed many friendships, and all who have the pleasure of their acquaintance are sorry to lose them, and trust also that circumstances may again favor their returning to the province. Our citizens who, in public or private capacity, have had dealings with Mr. Connolly, one and all heartily wish him bon voyage, in which the staff of THE COLONIST, who have frequently met him in their various capacities, feelingly join.

OUR ENGLISH LETTER.

Some Aspects of the Political Situation

Professor Bryce Writing a Book on America—Judicial Changes Foreshadowed—Comments on the Yacht Race.

[From Our Own Correspondent.]
LONDON, Oct. 14th.

The only item of political news afloat is a revival of the old rumor that Mr. Matthews' resignation of the seals of Home Secretary will not be long deferred. Mr. Matthews is a rich man, and is understood not to take very kindly to official life, so he will only be too ready to make way for a successor. It is not impossible, I fancy, that Lord Randolph Churchill will rejoin the ministry before the beginning of next session. There is no foundation for the rumor that Lord Ashbourne intends to resign. Lord Salisbury, however, is greatly troubled about the recent failure of the prosecutions in Ireland, and is said to have expressed his disappointment in forcible terms to the Irish Lord Chancellor.

Lord Salisbury is behind hand with his ecclesiastical appointments. He took three months to fill up the Bishopric of Manchester, and already he has given offence over his slowness in providing Rochester with a dean. The trouble is Lord Salisbury is not interested in church matters as Mr. Gladstone was interested, and, accordingly. One of Mr. Gladstone's old colleagues once said of him, "There's nothing in the world Gladstone loves so much, and nothing about which he takes such infinite trouble, as making bishops." Well, the present premier is not a statesman of that kind. Lord Salisbury's interest is in Foreign Office work, and the church has to wait, whilst some of the colleagues of Mr. Gladstone's last administration are still devoting themselves to politics.

Mr. Bryce (he does not like to be called Professor), ex-Under-Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is engaged upon a work which is likely to take high rank among standard books. It deals with America, and is a profound study of the political and economic status of that country, which an enterprising correspondent of the Times has just discovered. Mr. Bryce is little known to the general public, and he is not a platform speaker; but in the House of Commons, in precise degree as he is intimately known, he is recognised as one of the ablest men returned to Parliament. He is, moreover, as modest as he is able, which probably accounts for his figuring so little in the public estimation. He went to Switzerland immediately the House rose, having seen the arduous session out almost to its close. By way of recreation he took with him the materials for his forthcoming work, and has, according to a private letter, made great progress with it. Mr. Bryce is one of his colleagues to whom Mr. Gladstone most warmly expands. Both brilliant, classical scholars, they frequently hob nob down at Hawarden and at Mr. Gladstone's town residence.

In addition to the judicial changes foreshadowed some time since it is now said that Mr. Justice Denman has sent in his resignation as one of the Judges of the High Court. Mr. Denman has asked the requisite period to qualify for his pension, and he will be followed into retirement by the good wishes of his colleagues on the bench and at the bar. Though of a rather irritable disposition, he has always been a popular Judge, and though not a good authority as a black-letter lawyer, was nevertheless a strong Judge. He is the sole Judge on the bench of the High Court who has of knighthood, which is by tradition offered to all its members. As the heir presumptive to a peerage he takes precedence in rank of all Knight Bachelors, and "why should I pay £200 in fees to take up such an honor," said he to a friend of his who immediately after his elevation to the bench addressed him as "Sir George Denman." What with this vacancy and the others expected shortly by the retirement of Baron Huddleston and Justice Field, Lord Halsbury will not find it an easy matter to find successors. It is suggested, though on what authority I cannot trace, that Mr. Pitt Lewis is likely to get one of these appointments. Mr. Pitt-Lewis would certainly make a very good judge.

According to the return of the election expenses of the Hon. Alwyn Fellowes, the successful candidate at North Hunts, the maximum sum allowed by the act—£950—was spent. The returning officer's fees amounted to £178 6s. 11d., and Mr. Fellowes' personal expenses to £11 4s., bringing the total up to nearly £1,140.

The traffic return of the North-Eastern Railway for the past week has still the satisfactory features which have for months marked preceding weekly returns. There is an increase in every department—of £266 in passenger receipts, £2,025 from merchandise and cattle, £2,731 from minerals, and £118 from dock dues. In all there is thus an increase of £5,140. And for the half year, as far as it has gone, the increase over the same portion of the corresponding half year is £47,456—a very substantial proof of an enlarging trade over the system of the North-Eastern Railway.

England, it is evident, will have to build another yacht if the "American Cup" is to be wrested from the yachtsmen of the United States. The recent races between the Volunteer and the Thistle, in which the former had very decidedly the best of it, caused more general interest on this side of the water than any similar international encounter within memory. Those in which the Puritan and the Genesta, the Mayflower and the Galatea took part respectively, though sailed under similar conditions for the same prize, did not excite anything like the interest in Great Britain as was evoked by the most recent contest. For it was generally believed on this side of the Atlantic, and it was somewhat generally feared on the other, that the Thistle, which had been specially designed and built on the Clyde for the occasion, the American yachtsmen would meet more than their match. She was

SO FAR AHEAD

Of any English yachts with which she had competed that the sanguine hope was entertained, especially by Scotchmen, that she would bring back the America cup to these shores; but the wish was father to the thought. It was curious to note the interest which attached to the result in London. Crowds of persons gathered outside the newspaper offices in Fleet-street, anxiously awaiting the despatches from Sandy Hook as they were posted in the windows; and when the announcement was posted concerning each of the two first races (and those were the contests in which the public naturally felt the keenest concern) that the Thistle was hopelessly beaten, almost a groan arose from the assembled people.

The obituary includes the following names: Mr. J. Grierson, the general manager of the Great Western railway; Sir William Miller, Bart.; General Charles Henry Morris, R.A., C.B.; General Sir Arthur Mitford Beecher, K.C.B., Bengal Staff Corps. He was present at the siege of Ghuznee and the occupation of Cabul, and in the Sutlej campaign of 1845-6. He was quartermaster of the army from 1852 to 1863, and in that capacity was present with the army headquarters at the seige of Delhi, etc., in 1857, when he was severely wounded.

THE SWING BRIDGE.

The Contractors Begin the Work of Throwing the Structure Across the Harbor.

Messrs. Hoffman & Bates, of Portland, the firm who secured the contract for building the swing bridge for the Esquimalt and Nanaimo railway across the harbor, yesterday morning began the work of driving the wooden piles from the approach on the Indian reserve. The firm have made admirable arrangements for vigorously prosecuting the work, having built a very large pile driver, placed on a scow, the hoisting engine for lifting it being enclosed in a house, rendering it possible to work in all kinds of weather. The bridge will be of iron, and is being built from the foot of Johnson street across the water to the Indian reserve for the purpose of bringing the railway in to the city, for which also a depot is to be erected on Store street, at the foot of Cormorant street. The bridge will have a span of 100 feet clear on each side of the pivot pier, and will be about 226 feet long and 18 feet wide. A single line of railway will be placed in the centre, and on both sides of it there will be protections, so that all kinds of vehicles can pass with perfect safety. A sidewalk on both sides, 4 feet 6 inches wide, will enable foot passengers to cross whenever they wish to.

The piles are covered with copper to one foot above extreme high water mark, so that the toredo will not do them any injury. The piles will be three feet above high water mark, and on them the trestle work will stand. The abutments, which consist of seven piles, will be surrounded with iron cylinders filled with concrete, and this fact, as also the fact of there being a good rock foundation, will tend to make the bridge as strong as is required. It will be finished by the end of next month.

THE LOCAL OPPOSITION.

The Mutiny in the Ranks—Who Will Be Asked to Stand?

The general topic of conversation in the city during the past few days has been the smash-up of the local opposition, the early retirement of Mr. Beaven from the leadership, and the prospective installation of Mr. Bole in his place. Every one admits that Mr. Beaven has been treated cruelly by those who owe him a debt of gratitude, and that he used the wretched material he handled to the best possible advantage. But he has been betrayed, and will be asked to take a back seat. Speculation is rife as to his successor. If Mr. Stenhouse had not gone to Salt Lake he would undoubtedly have had the first offer of the place. The infirmity from which he suffers would in that case be a blessing in disguise, as he would not be forced to listen to the awful rubbish of his followers. Mr. Bole, Mr. Orr or even Mr. Ladner, who has recovered from his late mishap, and is as chipper as ever, would make a good leader, but the choice will probably fall on Mr. McLeese, with Mr. Semlin as deputy. Mr. McLeese is not a great orator, but he has a ponderous way of putting questions, as an athlete puts a stone, and when he once grasps an idea he holds on to it with all his strengch. Mr. Beaven will probably occupy a cross bench.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Mr. Geo. Byrnes purchased the steamer Lottie at the sale of the dry dock contractors' plant on Wednesday last.

A grand ball was given by Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Ward last evening, at which a large number of guests were present.

Admiral Culme-Seymour, Mr. Jos. Boscowitz, and others of the shooting party at the Delta are reported to be securing good sport.

Esther, the little daughter of Mr. Samuel Edge, Maple Ridge, was kicked by a horse on Wednesday and her skull fractured. She will probably die.

The Rainbow yesterday transferred 1,000 cases canned salmon from E. A. Wadhams' cannery to the iron bark Clairmont, lying at the rice mills wharf.

Dempster & Beek have leased the premises formerly occupied by the Transfer Co. at the corner of Gordon and Broughton streets, and will carry on a general blacksmithing business.

Two very heavy prices of machinery for the workshops of the Island railway at Wellington, have been lying at Westminster for some time past awaiting shipment to Victoria, where it will be transferred to the Island railway for transit to Wellington. The machine is a turning lathe of large size from Cincinnatti, Ohio.

Worth Knowing!

It has long been the study of chemists to produce an article that, while it would beautify the complexion, would also have the merit of being harmless, but these two important qualities were never brought together until combined in Wisdom's Robertine, the newest and best preparation science has yet produced for beautifying the complexion. $1000 is offered for every grain of poisonous substance found in it. ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP should always be used when children are cutting teeth. It relieves the little sufferer at once; it produces natural, quiet sleep by relieving the child from pain, and the little cherub awakes as "bright as a button." It is very pleasant to taste. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, relieves wind, regulates the bowels, and is the best known remedy for diarrhœa, whether arising from the teething or other causes. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Be sure and ask for MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP, and take no other. d&w
